support packs & independent living funds

Emergency packs can include funds to cover an electric or gas top up, emergency travel, food and somewhere to stay.

Rainbow packs can provide financial help with a deposit, essential home items and funds towards moving costs.

akt also provide independent living funds, which provide young people with support around education, training and employment.

In 2022–23 akt's services team provided:

203 emergency support packs

81 emergency accommodation packs

76 rainbow starter packs

234 independent living funds

youth engagement programme

The youth engagement team at akt expanded in between 2022–2023. The service offers a community space and activities in Bristol and the South West, London, Manchester, Newcastle, and online. From October 2022– April 2023 there were:

55 youth engagement sessions across the country

41 young people who attended a youth engagement programme

who we've helped

Between 2022-23, akt supported 817 young people facing homelessness, at risk of homelessness, or living in hostile environments. This number includes young people who had been referred in previous years and were receiving ongoing casework.

Of the young people akt supported during this time frame:

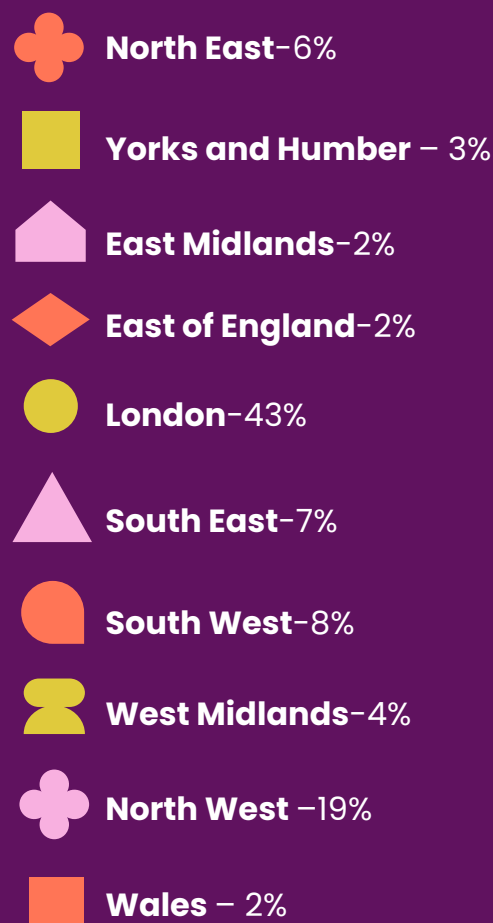

11% were under the age of 18
when they started casework

62% identified as trans or non-binary or questioning their gender identity

46% were Black, Brown and People of Colour (BBPOC)

where our young people are based what were young people's experiences before contacting akt?

19%
were sofa surfing

87%
of young people referred said they had experienced rough sleeping at some point prior to referral, even if they were no longer experiencing it.

29%
were living with family
